

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thu, 28th September 2023 / Lot 1078

LOT 1078

A LeCoultre Memovox HPG Polaris II Automatic stainless steel cased diver's/alarm wristwatch, circa 1970s, the signed jewelled movement numbered '2098737', the signed black dial with luminous baton hour markers and inner silvered rotating dial with alarm pointer and date aperture, the large tonneau case with black rotating bezel, the case back interior detailed 'E870' and '1263759', numbered '022' between the lugs, case width 4.3cm (faults).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1078. The watch is worn. Glass is chipped around edge with some damage to inner bezel directly below the glass/crystal damage.

Wear and scratches to case and glass. Dial otherwise looks ok.

The watch hands adjust smoothly and date rolls over as it should, alarm sounds at correct time. It is not currently running.

Created: Wed, 20th September 2023 09:59