LOT 1267

An impressive Victorian walnut and brass mounted bracket clock with eight day three train movement chiming quarters on four gongs and striking hours on a larger gong, the silvered circular dial with black Roman hour numerals and all striking/silent subsidiary dial, the brass surround with applied foliate scrolls, the case with urn and pineapple finials above a glazed front door, flanked by a pair of caryatid and floral cast corner columns, the sides with pierced and cast fret panels, on a moulded plinth base with foliate scroll feet, height 71cm, with pendulum, winding key and case key.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1267. Generally good condition, a bit dusty and dirty so would benefit from a clean.

Case with typical scuffs, scratches and wear. Metalwork all present but dirty. Dial with some wear, scuffs and scratches. Both hinges of doors in good order. Pierced metal back panel misshapen/bent so would require some work.

All three trains wind smoothly and the clock runs, striking and chiming mechanism also running at present, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
