Condition Report

405 - Generally good condition. Coconut is nice and thick and in good order with typical light surface scratches and wear. Nicely polished.

Silver foot in good order. Token to interior also in good condition. The rim is in good condition with nice detail to engraving and piercing. Just beneath the rim there is a band of drilled indentations, some have some glue residue visible which may suggest the indentations were set with something or they may have been purely decorative.
