LOT 2012

An early 18th century provincial oak single drop-flap table, the frieze incorporating an earlier panel carved with opposing birds, height 72cm, width 70cm, depth 65cm (alterations).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2012. The table is structurally ok, but has some overall minor cracks and repairs to joints. There have clearly been some alterations, with the earlier panel set into the frieze. The lock and handle is missing on the drawer.
