

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1420

LOT 1420

An inscribed Continental tin glazed earthenware dish, probably low countries, dated 1567, painted in blue with geometric patterns and an outer Dutch inscription roughly translating as [those who do not work do not eat...], unmarked, diameter 21.3cm. Note: the inscription is attributed to St. Paul.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

No restoration or significant damage or repairs.

The rim edge circumference glaze is pretty much totally fritted away.

There is a concave chip to the central medallion approx 8mm diameter and a few other minor surface glaze blemishes as a result of the manufacture.

Created: Tue, 17th October 2023 09:37