

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1418

LOT 1418

An unusual St. Ives Troika wheel vase, circa 1966-70, decorated by Honor Curtis, monogrammed, incised with stylized owls to one side opposing abstract motifs, black painted marks to base, height 20cm (faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

There is nibbled chipping along one side edge of the foot and three fine firing cracks which fold over the edge of the foot into the main body on each side.

There is a small chip and a small nick to the side edge of the main body and a short vertical haircrack to the neck rim interior.

Please view the images on our website using the zoom function.

Created: Tue, 17th October 2023 13:06