

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1697

LOT 1697

Six Royal Doulton stoneware jars and tobacco jars and covers, first half 20th century, including one decorated with Art Nouveau inspired foliate motifs against a mottled blue ground, height 12.8cm, and one decorated with a sailing ship, height 16cm, together with a Doulton Lambeth stoneware tobacco jar and cover, decorated with a raised border of foliage with floral motifs, impressed and incised marks to base, height 12.8cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Art Nouveau decorated with white roses against a blue ground - large unsprung chip to base edge.

Example with green leaves and tall floral stems - has liner cover but missing actual cover.

Pale green ground example decorated with blue flowers - small chip and a nick to underside edge of cover.

Dark green ground with Art Nouveau motifs - small chip to liner cover, missing outer cover.

Buff textured ground with blue foliage - small nicks to underside edge of cover and tiny nick to top rim edge.

Other items in the lot in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Created: Fri, 20th October 2023 10:20