

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1423

LOT 1423

Two French porcelain scent or perfume bottles and stoppers, late 19th/early 20th century, both painted with flowers within gilt framing against a pink ground, painted marks to bases, heights 5.5cm and 13.5cm.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

The smaller example is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The larger example has a glued repair to the cover with associated haircracks along the line of the repair. The main body of the larger example is in good condition.

Created: Fri, 20th October 2023 10:24