

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1409

LOT 1409

A Worcester Hollow Rock Lily pattern blue painted fluted teabowl, circa 1770, blue painted open crescent mark to base, diameter 8.5cm, a Worcester blue ground teabowl, painted with circular and fan shaped gilt edged Kakiemon panels, diameter 7.6cm, and a mixed group of other 18th century English porcelain teawares, including a Bell Toy coffee pot (lacking cover) a Travellers teabowl and two cream jugs (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ON THIS LOT JUST DETAILING THE OBJECT LISTED BELOW.

Travellers teabowl - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some minor and light typical scratches to base interior.

Created: Tue, 24th October 2023 09:40