

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1467

LOT 1467

A Vienna porcelain style caddy, late 19th century, painted in the style of Herr, signed, with classical ladies to both faces of the shouldered rectangular body, blue painted pseudo beehive mark to base with impressed numerals, height 14.5cm, together with a Herend floral moulded and painted jardinière, height 14.5cm, a Herend Queen Victoria pattern teacup and saucer and a Dresden plate, height 21cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Caddy - lacking cover, minor spots of wear/rubbing to gilding, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Herend pieces - each in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Plate - in good condition overall, light rubbing to gilt rim.

Created: Tue, 24th October 2023 10:11