

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th October 2023 / Lot 1410

LOT 1410

A Meissen porcelain cabinet cup and saucer, 19th century, painted with figural landscape views and scattered floral sprays beneath gilt rims, the cup with angular handle, underglaze blue crossed swords marks to bases with impressed numerals, diameter of saucer 13cm, together with a French silver mounted Samson caddy of hexagonal baluster shape, height 12cm, and a later Meissen porcelain cup and saucer, cancelled marks to base.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

1410. Scored mark through Meissen mark on both smaller cup and saucer.

Dent to silver rim of tea caddy lid.

Overall condition is good, with minor age related wear and minor surface scratches.

Created: Wed, 25th October 2023 11:43