Condition Report

The case is not the original.

There is a double struck 'Hong Kong' mark to one bar fitting, and a '14K' mark to the other bar fitting.

There is no paperwork to accompany these cufflinks.

After further examination we have changed the description to read 'green gem set', we cannot be 100% certain that the stones are jade. They are testing as polycrystalline and providing a vague shadow edge at 1.66 on the refractometer.
