LOT 26

William Nicholson - 'The Ellen Terry Jubilee Commemoration Banquet Souvenir', panoramic lithograph in colours on two joined sheets, published 1906, overall 17cm x 147cm, within a cardboard box with geometric paper cover and original paper label. Note: this scarce lithograph depicts a stage with chronographical representations of Ellen Terry in her various parts from 'Hamillius 1856' to 'Lady Cecily 1906'. It was distributed as souvenirs to guests at the Jubilee Banquet at the Hotel Cecil on 17 June 1906. References: Colin Campbell, 'William Nicholson: The Graphic Work' (Barrie & Jenkins, 1992) p.115.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

26 - Some handling creases. Glue is failing where the two sheets are joined, but overall in good condition. The corners of the box lid are coming apart and there are some losses to the geometric print. There is one tear to the long edge of the box lid.
