LOT 29

Charles Loraine Smith - 'The Rendezvous of the Smoking Hunt at Braunstone, on Friday the 8th of February, 1822', 'The Rendezvous of the Quor'n Hounds at Grooby Pool, on Tuesday the 16th of April 1822', 'A Leicestershire Burst', 'Loss of the Chaplain', 'Bagging the Fox', and 'The Victory of obtaining the Brush, after what is called a Tickler', six aquatints with later hand-colouring, published by J. Watson 1826, each 34cm x 41cm, all within Hogarth style frames.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

29. All in ok condition commensurate with age. All display some minor age toning and browning around the edge caused from previous mounts. About half have very minor light creasing. The later colour does appear to have faded slightly.

The mounts and backing are not archival and would benefit from being replaced.

Frames have some scuffs and scratches.

These have not been examined out of their frames.
