

Furniture / Thu, 2nd November 2023 / Lot 2050

LOT 2050

A George IV mahogany two-tier dumb waiter, attributed to Gillows of Lancaster, the two tiers with channel moulded edges above a reeded stem and carved tripod legs, height 73cm, diameter 63cm. Note: a very similar dumb waiter sold at Christie's Fine English Furniture sale, No. 6490, 20th September 2001, Lot 137.

Estimate: £700 - £900

Condition Report

2050. Some water marks and stains to both levels. One small section of moulding missing on lower edge of top. Some overall typical minor surface wear commensurate with age.

Created: Thu, 2nd November 2023 09:26