

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 9th November 2023 / Lot 1050

LOT 1050

A Chinese Ming-style blue and white porcelain yuhuchunping vase, mark of Qianlong and possibly of the period, of pear shaped form rising to a flared trumpet neck, the body painted in vivid tones of underglaze blue with plantain and bamboo growing beside a fence and rocks, below a ruyi-head collar and bands of scrolling tendrils and upright plantain leaves, the slightly splayed circular foot with a row of nine lotus flowers, underglaze blue seal mark to base, height 28.9cm.

Estimate: £3,000 - £5,000

Condition Report

1050. Good condition, no chip, cracks or repairs. Some very minor surface scratches to glaze visible under magnification.

Created: Fri, 3rd November 2023 15:38