

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 9th November 2023 / Lot 1013

LOT 1013

A Chinese Canton export enamel circular saucer dish, mid-18th century, the interior painted with a pair of pheasants perched upon rocks amidst peony and other flowers, the rim filled with panels of black scrolling foliage, the underside with flower and fruit sprays, diameter 36.7cm (hairlines, wear and some enamel loss).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1013. Dent and repair to rim at 2 o'clock with some filler to exterior and some enamel loss to interior. Surface scratches and wear, hairlines and stress cracks to interior with minor losses along one of the cracks. Underside with some losses to enamel, hairline and stress cracks.

Created: Tue, 7th November 2023 12:52