

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 9th November 2023 / Lot 1022

LOT 1022

A Chinese famille verte enamelled biscuit porcelain teapot and cover with Buddhistic lion cub finial, mark of Kangxi but late Qing dynasty, the flattened body pierced and moulded as a character, painted with opposing figural panels within floral borders, black enamelled six-character mark to base, height 23cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1022. Good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Minor firing fault to footrim but nothing of significance. Good bright enamels.

Created: Tue, 7th November 2023 12:54