

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 9th November 2023 / Lot 1033

LOT 1033

A set of six Chinese blue and white export porcelain plates, late Qianlong period, each painted with a pair of pheasants beside tree and peony within a shaped foliate rim, diameters 22.2cm, together with nine other Chinese blue and white export porcelain plates, 18th century, comprising seven painted with floral designs and the other two with coastal landscapes, diameters ranging from 22.9cm to 24cm (faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1033. Set of six - all with cracks, three with rivet repairs, few with minor rim chips.

Six of the other plates with minor rim chips.

Two with rim chips and hairline cracks.

One with minor rim chips and rivet repaired.

Created: Tue, 7th November 2023 13:09