

Silver and Plate / Wed, 29th November 2023 / Lot 533

LOT 533

An early 20th century silver tea caddy and cylindrical cover of lobed circular form, embossed with a band of slender entwined stems of roses, unmarked, weight 217.6g, height 11.2cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

533. Two small dents to the body and one small dent to the base. Surface scratches to underside of base and general age related wear.

Please be aware, this piece is not hallmarked.

Created: Mon, 27th November 2023 13:09