

Objects of Virtu / Thu, 30th November 2023 / Lot 2329

LOT 2329

An 18th century silver mounted carnelian scent bottle of pear form, height 5.5cm, two 19th century gilt metal and hardstone rotating job seals, a small folding needlework prick and a miniature bone model of an iron.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE - this report refers to one item in the Lot only. If you require information on the other items, please request this.

2329. Scent bottle - overall minor wear and surface dents to the silver mounts, with particular wear around footrim mount. Internal part of bottle stopper is dented and misshaped.

Created: Mon, 27th November 2023 12:53