

Silver and Plate / Wed, 29th November 2023 / Lot 510

LOT 510

A set of three George II silver graduated tea caddies and hinged covers with pineapple finials, the central caddy of square form, engraved with 'C' and rococo foliate scrolls, raised on trefoil feet, the other two of rectangular form with matching decoration, on plain stepped bases, London 1739 by John Pero, total weight 1583.5g, height 13.7cm, within original silver mounted back fish-skin covered casket with velvet lined interior, silver handle and key escutcheon, on bun feet, length 26.5cm (minor fish-skin loss to hinged lid).

Estimate: £3,000 - £5,000

Condition Report

510. Caddies are in good clean condition. No engraved initials, crest or inscriptions and no signs of any erasures. Typical light surface scratches and minor wear, but nothing of any real significance. Good clear hallmarks and all matching. The caddies do not have locks, however the fitted fish-skin covered casket has a lock.

Dimensions, pair of caddies - height 13.7cm, depth 8.7cm, width 6.1cm.

Dimensions, central caddy - height 13.7cm, depth 8.5cm, width 8.6cm.

Created: Sat, 25th November 2023 11:33