LOT 7

Circle of Thomas Lawrence - Lieutenant General Paul Anderson, early 19th century oil on canvas, 74.5cm x 61.5cm, within a gilt frame with applied plaque. Provenance: family descent from Lieutenant-General Paul Anderson to the current vendor. Formerly at Grace Dieu, Waterford. Ref: for related portraits and paintings, see Lots 8, 9, 29, 31, 45 and further portrait miniatures in our sale of Objects of Virtu on 30th November.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,500

Condition Report

7. Previously cleaned and restored. Heavy craquelure throughout, but paint appears stable, small scratch to the top-right corner. Paint a little thin in areas, particularly around medals and awards. UV examination highlights some small areas of overpainting, including a few touches around the nose. The gilt frame is in good condition but has some dirt and some chips and scuffs to extremities.
