

Antiquities / Thu, 30th November 2023 / Lot 2466

LOT 2466

A 14th/15th century copper alloy staff or ceremonial cross mount, in the form of a standing saint in robes with gilt surface decoration, detached from a larger piece, height 9.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

2466. The figure has an overall surface wear but still retains a reasonable amount of gilt. Some particular wear to the nose, but otherwise in reasonable condition.

Created: Mon, 27th November 2023 13:00