LOT 505

A pair of George II cast silver candlesticks, each with urn shaped sconce above a baluster stem, on a shaped square base cornered by stylized scallop shells, engraved crest to each base, London 1745 by William Gould, weight 1030.9g, height 19cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

505. Both in generally good condition with typical surface scratches and wear to highpoints. Minor misshaping/dent to rims of sconces.

Minor misshaping to base of one so wobbles ever so slightly.

The other one has a slightly bent column/stem, so leans slightly to one side, and has a small repair where it meets the base .

Each engraved with a crest/arms to base. Hallmarks to underside edge are clear.
