LOT 518

A pair of George III silver gilt oval eight-division toast racks with integral boat shaped stands, crest engraved, each stand with ram's mask and loose ring handles, on ball feet, London 1809 and 1810 by IC, total weight 1490.5g, length 26.5cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

518. Both in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear, but again nothing significant. Few minor dents to underside of ball feet. Good clear hallmarks. Each with a pair of matching engraved crests. Bit dirty and dusty and would benefit from a clean. Minor marks where ring handles have rubbed/bounced against the stands. All nuts to underside are present.
