LOT 1938

A large pale amber tinted crackle or ice glass enamelled two-handled vase, probably Czechoslovakian, early 20th century, decorated with a colourful bird flying above a frog by waterlilies and an iris plant, unmarked, height 29.5cm, together with a similar pair of vases in the style of Moser, with enamelled Aesthetic motifs, unmarked, height 19.5cm (one rim chipped). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

One of the pair has a chip to the everted rim approx 1.5cm long by 0.5cm wide - please see image 4 on our website.

Otherwise each piece is in good condition apart from some typical light and minor wear/rubbing to the gilding commensurate with age.
