LOT 1256

A Victorian brass skeleton clock with eight day single fusee movement striking hours on a bell, the silvered skeletonized chapter ring with black Roman hour numerals, the pierced scroll frame with bell surmount, on an oval mahogany base with glass dome, with pendulum and winding key, total height 48.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1256. The clock winds smoothly and is currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. The strike mechanism works with single strike on the hour. Typical light surface scratches and wear to brass frame and silvered dial. Glass dome in good order. Mahogany base with typical scuffs and wear, but in good condition. Dome and base a good fit.
