

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 7th December 2023 / Lot 1236

LOT 1236

An early 20th century Regency Revival mahogany bracket clock, the three train movement with Westminster chime on four gongs and striking hours on a larger gong, the silvered circular dial with Roman hour numerals and inscribed 'J.W. Benson London', the case with brass ball finials above a moulded arch pediment and fluted corner columns, flanked by pierced brass fret panels, the front with brass line inlay and foliate scroll motif, on a rectangular plinth and brass bun feet, height 48.5cm, with pendulum.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1236. The clock is in good clean condition with typical light surface scratches, scuffs and wear, but no significant damage. Dial in good clean condition. All three trains wind smoothly and the clock is running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. Striking mechanism in good condition with chiming on the quarters and strike on the hour.

Created: Fri, 1st December 2023 15:48