

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 25th January 2024 / Lot 2540

LOT 2540

An early 20th century turned boxwood and ebonized Staunton chess set by Jaques of London, red maker's mark to foot of king, height of king 9cm (faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2540. Knights have some slight chips to edges of ears.
Two white pawns have chips to collars, black pawns also with chips to collars.
Chips to crowns of both queens.
Small chips to both bishops.
Black knight missing cross.

Bases are not weighted.
Height of king given in catalogue description is to top of cross.
No box.

Created: Thu, 18th January 2024 15:36