

Silver and Plate / Wed, 24th January 2024 / Lot 381

LOT 381

A 19th century Continental silver and enamelled snuff box of canted corner rectangular form, the lid decorated in relief with a scene of classical lovers in a landscape framed by scrolls, hinged to reveal an enamelled plaque depicting a similar scene, weight 88.4g, length 7.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

381 - Unsure if the top panel is original or later added but it has been soldered/repared around the edge with over half partially detached again. Typical surface scratches and wear to highpoints and edges. The enamelled plaque to interior in generally good condition. Typical light surface scratches to gilt interior. Hinge is good.

Created: Sat, 20th January 2024 10:28