

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 25th January 2024 / Lot 2522

LOT 2522

A Victorian rosewood and brass bound artist's box by G. Rowney & Co of London, the hinged lid inset with embossed leather maker's label, the interior with watercolour cakes, original ceramic palettes, pewter brush box and palette knife, width 32cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

2522. Exterior is generally ok with fairly typical minor surface marks and scratches. The base board is a little loose from the weight of the drawer and this could do with re-fixing. Two later screws to one hinge. One of the ceramic cake holders has a chip and there is typical minor surface wear to the other interior items.

Created: Wed, 24th January 2024 10:28