LOT 2528

A late Victorian mahogany cased folding artist's box by C. Roberson & Co of London, the double-hinged top opening to reveal a baize-lined surface and raised on a ratchet strut, the end drawer containing watercolour cakes, width 23.5cm (some historic woodworm to hinged top).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

2528. The interior trim surrounding the baize has quite a lot of woodworm, but otherwise condition appears to be in good working order. The end is fitted with a drawer and contains a number of watercolour cakes.
