

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 25th January 2024 / Lot 2537

LOT 2537

A 17th century wrought iron rush light with double scroll terminals and candle socket, raised on an oak base, height 32cm, together with another similar rush light, height 29cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2537. The scroll terminal rush light has an overall typically pitted surface, but is otherwise ok. The later swan neck rush light has a loose rivet joint and a slightly scuffed base.

Created: Wed, 24th January 2024 10:32