LOT 2501

A 19th century forty-eight button concertina by Louis Lachenal, serial number '18321', the pierced rosewood ends with nickel plated buttons, within its original rosewood case.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2501. Bellows appear to be in good order. Apart from some overall minor surface wear, the general condition seems fine. Lachenal label is loose and floating around behind the fretwork.
