

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2024 / Lot 374

LOT 374

A Mappin & Webb part canteen of plated and faux ivory handled Athenian pattern cutlery, comprising five tablespoons, twelve table knives and forks, twelve dessert forks and spoons, eleven dessert knives, twelve soup spoons, soup ladle, two sauce ladles, twelve fish knives and forks, serving fish fork, twelve fruit knives and forks, fourteen teaspoons, pair of sugar tongs, carving knife and steel and tin opener, together with a matched plated serving fish knife, contained within an oak two-drawer canteen table.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

374. The table has some wear to the top, but is otherwise ok. The cutlery has some pieces missing and the catalogue description contains a list of the contents. The cutlery is in generally good order, however all the ivorex handles have a slight gapping to the metalware, which is much worse on the fish set where there is quite a big gap.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2024 13:05