Condition Report

Earrings - both drops have vertical cracks to one side, both with a few natural flaws to the surface.
Loose bead surmount is cracked.
One screw fitting is slightly bent.

Coral pendant - rubbing and losses to gilt of surmount
Coral itself has a few natural flaws to the surface.

Brooch - one green gem lacking, another is badly chipped, three or four others have nibbles or are abraded.
The anchor appears a little bent. Some losses to the claws/mounting. Some general variation of cut to the green gems, one or two likely replacements.
