LOT 40

Edwin Austin Abbey - 'Going to Church', 19th century watercolour, artist's name and title to label, and stencils verso, 66cm x 32cm, within a gilt composition frame.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

40 - Some age toning to paper. Some foxing throughout as well as a few splatters of ink. The top fifth appears to have been slightly affected by damp with a light thinning or rubbing to the paint. The watercolour has faded a little. The mount has discoloured and would warrant replacing. The frame has some damage to the bottom left and smaller chips to the composition elsewhere. This work has not been examined out of the frame.
