

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2024 / Lot 412

LOT 412

A late Victorian silver tea caddy of rectangular bombé form with hinged lid and stylized scallop shell finial, the body embossed with scallop shells within foliate corners, on foliate scroll feet, London 1899 by Thomas Bradbury, weight 285.5g, height 14.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

412. The caddy is in generally good order with very light surface wear, but otherwise ok.

Created: Tue, 20th February 2024 15:43