

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1663

LOT 1663

A creamware teapot and cover, circa 1770, probably Leeds, polychrome painted with flowers, the twisted reeded handle with floral terminals, the spout with foliate moulding, the cover with relief floral knob, height 12cm, together with a pearlware teapot and cover, height 13cm (faults and restoration).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1663. Larger teapot - restored spout and some glaze discolouration to edge of lid.

Smaller teapot - heavily restored lid and tip of spout. Hairline crack to rim.

Created: Wed, 21st February 2024 15:55