

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1667

LOT 1667

A large Cantagalli maiolica circular charger, late 19th/early 20th century, painted to the centre with a head and shoulders portrait of a girl, in the style of Vermeer, against a blue ground filled with foliate scrollwork, cherubs and centaurs, the rim similarly painted with animals against a cream ground, painted cockerel mark and '16' to base, diameter 43.5cm (fault).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

1667. Patch of loose glazing to the rear of the rim and a few small areas of minor fritting, otherwise ok.

Created: Wed, 21st February 2024 15:57