

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1450

LOT 1450

A Sèvres porcelain cream jug, circa 1762, painted with opposing fruit and floral panels within gilt scroll edged green frames against a pink ground, underglaze blue mark to base, height 7.8cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1450. Some minor gilt loss to handle and some other areas of very minor wear to gilt. Otherwise just a small area of touching-in to gilt on lower swag on one side. Otherwise no other signs of restoration or cracks.

Created: Wed, 21st February 2024 16:14