

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1435

LOT 1435

A Sèvres porcelain cabinet cup and matched saucer, second half 18th century, the cup with a winged cherub holding a floral basket within a laurel frame, the saucer with a dove and quiver of arrows, each against a gilt and turquoise pointillé ground, underglaze blue marks to bases (restoration).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1435. The handle of the cup has been restored and the exterior of the bowl also has some restoration.

Created: Wed, 21st February 2024 16:27