

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1432

LOT 1432

A large group of Portmeirion Botanic Garden pattern tablewares, comprising fifteen dinner plates, seven dessert plates, sixteen tea plates, six cereal bowls, coffee pot and cover, two teapots and covers, five teacups and six saucers, five mugs, five boxed cutlery items or sets, pair of salt and pepper cruets, milk jug, sugar bowl and cover, four dessert bowls and serving bowl (minor faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1432. Globular teapot - spout chipped, lid handle chipped.

Jug - chip to handle

One dessert plate - crazed

One dinner plate - scratches to design

Sugar bowl and cover, and milk jug are the only two pieces not indicating country of origin.

All boxed cutlery made in China.

All other pieces marked 'Made in England' or 'Made in Britain'.

Majority of pieces in generally good condition, minimal of wear evident.

Created: Fri, 23rd February 2024 14:40