

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1540

LOT 1540

A Royal Crown Derby silver mounted Japan pattern coffee set, dated 1903 and 1904, comprising six cans held in pierced silver foliate scroll mounts with scroll handles, and six saucers, red printed, painted and impressed factory marks, cased (minor faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1540. One saucer with slight wear to the gilt rim.

One can with hairline crack to rim

One can with some slight wear to gilt rim

Cans have some evidence of use, i.e. light staining to interiors.

The silver mounting have some slight variation in their design finish. Some poor casting/piercing in places.

The case has some typical wear to the exterior, hinges in working order. Case closes tightly and securely.

Created: Fri, 23rd February 2024 15:01