

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1643

LOT 1643

A Daniel porcelain shell border design part dessert service, circa 1830, painted with gilt scroll framed fruit and flower panels against a turquoise ground, comprising comport, two tazze and twelve plates, diameter 22.3cm (some wear).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1643. No crazing of any note to comports or plates. As can be seen in the online images, there is wear to gilt and the turquoise in particular. No significant damage with no apparent cracks. Minor chips to rims of the two low tazze.

No markings or numbers to any of the pieces.

Created: Thu, 29th February 2024 09:54