

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1404

LOT 1404

Two Gustavsberg Pungo series Carrara glazed vases, designed by Stig Lindberg, circa 1953, the stoneware bodies of open teardrop shape, covered in a matt white glaze, shape 280, height 19cm, shape 238, height 24cm, impressed marks to bases with original applied paper labels (both with minute nick).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1404. Both a little dirty and dusty so would benefit from a clean.

Larger vase - small chip to inside of rim. No apparent crazing or restoration. Visible scratches to interior and other surface scratches, wear and scuffs to exterior glaze.

Smaller vase - tiny chip/fleabite nibble to one side of rim. No apparent crazing or restoration. Typical light surface scratches to glaze interior and exterior.

Created: Mon, 26th February 2024 12:40