

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1412

LOT 1412

A group of Crown Ducal Orange Tree pattern tablewares, including a butter dish and cover, length 16.8cm, a rectangular sandwich plate, length 32cm, an octagonal platter, length 33cm, two teapot stands, eight cups, six saucers, two milk jugs, two cream jugs and a small teapot and cover, height 9cm (faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1412. Butter dish and cover - cover with a few nibbles to rim
Oval plate - crazed
Octagonal bowl - crazed
Circular plate - crazed
Both square sandwich plates - crazed, one with chip to underside or rim
2 cups chipped, one of which heavily faded design, the other crazed
2 other cups crazed with staining to interiors
4 shallower cups generally ok, minor rubbing to design
Small jugs - one chipped and stained spout, other stained to interior and chipped to rim
1 octagonal plate cracked and crazed, the other octagonal plate with chipped rim
3 saucers crazed
1 side plate scratched and stained
Teapot - minor crazing lines
1 teapot stand- crazed
Rectangular plate - crazed, slightly stained

Other pieces in fairly good condition, with some minor wear

Created: Mon, 26th February 2024 15:57