

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1671

LOT 1671

A Worcester Fisherman and Billboard Island pattern blue painted sauceboat, circa 1760, of press-moulded form with foliate cartouches, unmarked, length 19cm, together with another Worcester sauceboat, printed with flowers (restored), and a Worcester spittoon, printed with The Three Flowers pattern, height 9cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

1671. Spittoon and large boat - in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Smaller boat - with restoration and overpainting to handle and body area (now yellowed).

Created: Tue, 27th February 2024 11:34