

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1465

LOT 1465

A small group of Doulton stonewares, comprising a Natural Foliage Ware vase, height 30cm, a pair of pale green ground flagons, height 20cm, a pair of bottle vases, a jug by Elizabeth Sayers, height 21.5cm, and a jug with a pair of matching beakers (some restoration).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1465. Pair of beakers - one with restoration to rim, the other with chips to footrim.

Jug (that matches beakers) - small area of restoration to rim/spout.

Natural foliage vase - some crazing.

Jug with dark brown/pale green decoration - restoration to rim/spout.

Pair of bottle vases - some scratching to neck/bodies.

Other pieces in fairly good condition.

Created: Tue, 27th February 2024 11:47